Report.

During the last year the progress of the work in East Upton School has been very satisfactory. Every one interested in the work is much pleased with the attendance and the conduct of the pupils. The average attendance for both departments was 80 per cent, the largest monthly average for the year.
Parent Teachers Association has been organized in connection with the school and has done much toward getting in touch with the parents and patrons.

The Public School Board has accomplished a great deal this year, the expenses of which at the close of the year were liquidated.

After the school to decide on some building was considered, the interest seemed to subside

January 12. 1891.

At a meeting of the Trustees held this evening at the house of Mr. A. Cameron, all members present.

Decided at last meeting to write to Thomas Drake, who was appointed to fill a vacancy, to ascertain if he had engaged Robert E. McKeen as janitor at a salary of $100. per year.

Voted to accept the report.

Moved by Mr. Cameron, seconded by Mr. Hunter, resolved that as the amount of the bill presented by Mr. Taylor, is the amount of subscription, and that on examining the papers nothing is due Mr. Taylor, it would then be necessary to call upon the Treasurer for the Society, and ask the Trustees what course to pursue as their resolutions are contradicted by receipts of $1011.

Voted that $11. left be divided among the trustees for speedy collection.
